

The gap between the rich and poor is widening. The middle class is disappearing. God created a world of abundance. Why is there so much poverty and economic distress?

Come join us for a Conversation with

Dr. Edith Rasell

Economic Justice Minister for UCC Justice and Witness Ministries

Sunday, October 26th from 4 to 6 pm

Lake Edge United Church of Christ

4200 Buckeye Road, Madison, WI

Refreshments will be served. Please RSVP by October 20th to Lake Edge, 608-222-8668 or lakeedge@lakeedge.org

- Learn about the causes of economic inequality (hint: it is not inevitable!).
- Strategize about ways to faithfully work for a more just society.
- Join in a faith community conversation with Dr. Edith Rasell UCC Minister for Economic Justice, a dynamic speaker who is known for making sense of complicated issues.

Edith Rasell is on the national staff of the United Church of Christ serving as Minister for Economic Justice. She works with UCC congregations around the country as well as national and international organizations to educate and mobilize the faith community and to bring greater economic justice to people in the U.S. and around the world, especially the poor and marginalized. Her work has been published in the American Economic Review, the New England Journal of Medicine, other journals and the popular press.

The faith community event is co-sponsored by Lake Edge United Church of Christ
The Southwest Wisconsin Association of the United Church of Christ Division of Social Concerns
Wisconsin Faith Voices for Justice and the Interfaith Coalition for Worker Justice of South Central Wisconsin . Made possible with support from the Lake Edge Endowment Fund.
